

CYL PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

The Ontario Co-operative Association is dedicated to the personal development of youth while providing a positive impact on volunteers and communities in Ontario. In order to achieve this mission all participants must be willing to comply with the guidelines and policies of the CYL program in Ontario. This includes recognizing and adhering to a Code of Conduct.

Failure to comply may result in the dismissal of the individual as a participant.

- Participants are expected to contribute 100 % effort. This includes arriving on time for meetings and events and participating fully in all planned activities.
- Participants, volunteers and guests should be treated, using appropriate and courteous manners, as you yourself would like to be treated while ensuring respect for people and property.
- A positive CYL image is expected at all times. The use of profanity, crude remarks, derogatory dress and actions will not be condoned.
- Behaviour must be conducive to a friendly, safe, fun and learning environment. Behaviour that is disruptive to other participants/volunteers or is harmful physically, mentally and/or emotionally to you and other participants/volunteers will not be tolerated.
- Acts of discrimination, and/or harassment on the basis of race, nationality or ethnic origin, colour, age, religion, family status or disability is unacceptable from all participants.
- Emotional, physical, verbal, mental or sexual abuse of any participant will not be tolerated.
- Possession and/or use of alcohol, illegal drugs or inhalants is forbidden by participants, regardless of age of majority, at Ontario Co-operative Association activities and will result in disciplinary action.
- Maintaining the privacy of participants is important. No person shall disregard another's privacy, including personal belongings, accommodation or hygiene facilities.
- Failure to comply with this Code of Conduct may be cause for dismissal of a Participant from an activity/program. In case of dismissal, no portion of fees whatsoever will be refundable. Interpretation of this code is at the discretion of those volunteers and/or staff responsible for the activity, in consultation with other volunteers as appropriate.
