

Directors' Forum

For Directors, By Directors

Ken Chan has served on the boards of Alterna Savings since 2012 and Alterna Bank since 2013. He joined the Directors' Forum Executive Committee in 2019. Ken brings leadership experience from the private, non-profit and public sectors. He was public affairs director at Vertex Pharmaceuticals, a global biotech company, and vice president for advocacy, research and clinical programs at Cystic Fibrosis Canada. Ken's public sector experience includes roles at the municipal, provincial and national levels in Canada and the United Kingdom. Earlier in his career, Ken was a constable with the Peel Regional Police.

An experienced director, Ken has served on the boards of Sherbourne Health, the University of Toronto, North York General Hospital and Lambeth College. He holds the ICD.D designation from the Institute of Corporate Directors.

Ken has a MBA from the City University of Seattle and a BA from Simon Fraser University. He has completed corporate governance and leadership programs at Said Business School (Oxford University), Harvard Business School, Kellogg School of Management (Northwestern University), Rotman School of Management (University of Toronto), Wharton School (University of Pennsylvania) and CPA Canada.